

I want to express how strongly I feel about protecting the rights which the NO-CALL Law afford my family. I have been much relieved to not have these bothersome call to my home. I do not want banks to have the ability to disrupt my life with sales or other banking information. I am able to seek this information for myself. I stongly urge no weakening of the current laws regulating calls to my home. Thank you, Beth Timpson